Worthy Brothers,

I want to first start off by thanking you all for electing me as Grand Knight for this CY. I want to thank outgoing GK Andrew Diaz for all his hard work and effort that he has put in over the last two years, and I look forward to working with him as a Council Trustee.

As you may or may not be aware, our council and its members make up a decent amount of the volunteers here at the Parish, not only through our good works with the Council, but in all our efforts in the other ministries. While we have a presence within our larger parish community, I fear that our presence is slowly diminishing due to a dwindling recruitment effort on our part. The success of any council is determined by the versatility of its membership, and we need to strive to do our part to bring in members that are willing to contribute and give back to not only our local community, but to those in need on a larger scale.

I am encouraging all my fellow Brothers to double down in their efforts to bring in at least one new Brother to the council. We all know of a fellow Brother to be that is a perfect candidate to join our order, and the only thing stopping them from already being a member of this fraternity, as our Insurance Agent Ron Restaino has said time and time again, is because no one has asked them if they would like to join.

This year, my goal is to reinvigorate our council so that we can continue to do all of the good that we are capable of, and more. I look forward to seeing you all at our next Council Meeting, scheduled for Wednesday, August 7th at 7:00 PM. We will have our Social time an hour prior beginning at 6:00 PM.

God Bless,

Jorge Soto - GRAND KNIGHT

Insurance corner -July-The fourth of July commemorates our country's independence. Let today commemorate your family's independence.

Free your family of worry and stress by getting life insurance. Life insurance for the time when you aren't going to be with them. No one lives forever, but your family's freedom can.

Life insurance allows your family the freedom of living. The protection allows them to live their lives. (Instead of worrying about how they will live their lives.) They will survive because of you and the investment you made in life insurance.

Call me today and let your family gain independence.

July Domestic Church

Because God is the Father of orphans and widows, we want to reach out to all those who are lonely and abandoned. God takes care of us; he is our guardian. The psalmist declares him to be the “Father of orphans and defender of widows” (Ps 68:6), a title significant in the ancient world, when orphans and widows were considered the weakest elements of society. Without parents or a husband to take care of them, they were defenseless. God does not leave us defenseless. Instead, he cares for us by sending us Jesus Christ, his only Son. Like the Good Samaritan, Jesus was especially close to the sick, hungry, lonely and poor. Through his actions toward those in need, Jesus provides the answer to Cain’s question: “Am I my brother’s keeper?” (Gen 4:9). No matter how lonely, depressed, ostracized or angered are those in our communities and families, God has entrusted each of them to us. We are truly our “brother’s keeper.” Meditation From an address of Pope Francis given on Dec. 29, 2013. Jesus wanted to belong to a family who experienced these hardships, so that no one would feel excluded from the loving closeness of God. The flight into Egypt caused by Herod’s threat shows us that God is present where man is in danger, where man is suffering, where he is fleeing, where he experiences rejection and abandonment; but God is also present where man dreams, where he hopes to return in freedom ... It is an example that does our families great good, helping them increasingly to become communities of love and reconciliation, in which tenderness, mutual help and mutual forgiveness is experienced.

1. How is our family rich in companionship? How can we reach out to those we know who lack the love of a close family?
2. Do material things and busy schedules isolate members of our family, perhaps excluding a parent, spouse, child or sibling? Is there a way to ensure that those in our family do not feel alone?
3. Do the elderly in our family feel lonely? What are some ways we could make them feel more included in the family’s love?

Family Project- Like the Good Samaritan, we are called to live out the corporal works of mercy: feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, clothing the naked, sheltering the homeless, visiting the sick and the imprisoned, and burying the dead. Ask each family member to help create a list of ways that your family might help the poor, the lonely and those in need. Once a month, dedicate time to such a person by making them dinner, assisting them with projects around their home, offering your prayers and support, or simply providing them company. Even our own family members, relatives, friends and neighbors may be alone, needy or new to your parish or school. Extend an invitation to your home , and ask each of your family members to help prepare for the meal in some way.
